Day 2

Morning

Barrier Island Eco Tour

Explore the tidal creeks of the salt marsh to experience and learn about marine life, sediments, barrier island formation, sand dune function, loggerhead sea turtles, erosion and deposition.

Beach Cookout for Lunch (included)

Tour Patriots Point

Home of the USS YORKTOWN is South Carolina's most unique and memorable attraction. The maritime museum includes four ships, including the USS Yorktown aircraft carrier, which played an important role in World War II. Lunch Navy Pier ($10 given to each person)

Day 2 Continued

Historic City Market

This area is often called the Slave Market because it's where house slaves once shopped for produce and fish. Today stalls are lined with restaurants and shops selling children's toys, leather goods, and regional souvenirs. Local "basket ladies" weave and sell sweetgrass, pine-straw, and palmetto-leaf baskets—a craft passed down through generations from their West African ancestors.

Dinner Cruise

for a night of dinner/dancing
Cruise along on a cruise ship designed for fun—and comfort. So come aboard for a few hours of food, dancing with a live DJ and coastal views.

Day 3

Morning

Carriage Ride

Experience 25-30 blocks of Charleston's historic downtown district where you'll see houses, gardens, mansions, churches, and parks, and learn about buildings, history, architecture, flora and the people that make up the "Holy City."

Plantation Tour

Charleston is known for its historical attractions and one of the best is the plantations that have been beautifully preserved over the years.

Depart for Lexington

Arrive in Lexington ~ 11:30 pm
