

Middle School Gifted and Talented Accelerated Program Feeder System

The feeder system is based upon the student's districted elementary home school. To locate which Gifted and Talented Accelerated Program school site that your student would attend, first find your districted elementary home school. Then locate at the top of that column which Gifted and Talented Program school site your student would attend. If you do not know your districted home school, please check the School Site Locator.
