Technical score based on all items in RFP being filled out and information being provided.

Cost score calculated by points being awarded for discount offered on page 16 of RFP (50 points possible) and the score of the sample pricing (450 points possible). Sample pricing score calculated based on the following criteria. Points were awarded for the 5 lowest prices for each item (7 pts for lowest price down to 3 points for the 5th lowest price). Once points were assigned the total sample price score for the lowest 5 items was added with the discount score to establish the total cost score.
