

SNAP Facts

- Formerly known as food stamps.
- Benefits are based on factors such as income, expenses, and family size.
- Working, or receiving benefits such as Social Security or unemployment does not make you ineligible.
- Being denied for SNAP in the past does not mean you are still ineligible.
- Unused benefits roll over to the next month. You can save them for an emergency or special occasion!
- You can double your benefits by shopping at Double Dollars-participating grocery stores and farmers markets.

Have questions? Need to apply? Want to know if you're eligible?

Chelsey Nickum, MSW

SNAP Outreach Specialist

cnickum@godspantry.org

(859) 288-5331

This institution is an equal opportunity provider. This project has been funded at least in part with Federal funds from the U.S. Department of Agriculture. The contents of this publication do not necessarily reflect the view or policies of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, nor does mention of trade names, commercial products, or organizations imply endorsement by the U.S. Government.