Calling All Latino High School Students That Are Interested in LAW to Apply to The Future Latino Leaders Law Camp

- You will spend 9 days in Washington, DC learning about Law and Leadership;
- You will prepare, participate and present a Mock Trial at the DC Superior Court;
- You will stay at George Washington University;
- You will spend time with high school students from all over the United States;
- All your expenses are paid by the HNBF thanks to our generous partners;
- Your application fee and travels expenses can also be waived based on need;
- You will meet incredible Latino leaders like The Honorable Mariano-Florentino Cuellar, Supreme Court Justice of the State of California;
- You will attend the HNBF Annual Awards Dinner at the Ritz Carlton;
- You will visit many government agencies throughout DC like The U.S. Supreme Court, The U.S. Department of State and The U.S. Department of Justice.

Contact denisemoreno@hnbf.org for more information and

APPLY BY APRIL 29, 2018 at HNBF.ORG