

BLUEGRASS
COMMUNITY & TECHNICAL COLLEGE

In partnership with  Center for Interprofessional and Community Health Education

SUMMER HEALTHCARE SUCCESS ACADEMIES

FREE for High School Students

Deadline to apply
May 26, 2023

Drop off as early as 7:45 am.
Late pick up as needed.

June 12-16, 2023 9:00 am-4:00 pm***

Healthcare Skill-Building Camp

Rising Junior and Senior high school students

Come to campus & learn skills essential to first-year success in a healthcare program.

- Experience hands-on learning in state-of-the-art science and simulation labs
- Experience an introductory college-level lecture class
- Learn how to manage a college-level reading load
- Learn organization, note-taking, and test-prep strategies

June 20-23, 2023 9:00 am-4:00 pm***

Healthcare Careers Exploration Camp

Rising Freshman and Sophomore high school students

Come meet healthcare professionals and explore a range of healthcare careers, including Nursing, Respiratory Care, Radiography, Sonography, and Medical Information Technology.

- Take part in hands-on learning activities in our state-of-the-art simulation labs
- Gain an understanding of the variety of healthcare career options
- Expect a variety of different learning opportunities, including lectures, fun group activities, interactive learning experiences, and hands-on simulation activities

*Breakfast, lunch & snacks are provided

Locations: BCTC Campuses - Leestown (50 students),
Danville (25 students), Winchester (25 students)

bluegrass.edu

Scan QR code to apply

Events for 11th and 12th-grade students are made possible by the U.S. Department of Labor Employment and Training Administration Strengthening Community Colleges Grant funding for underrepresented minority and/or students qualifying economically.

Events for 8th to 10th-grade students are made possible by Kentucky Council of Postsecondary Education KCTCS Healthcare Workforce Collaborative Funds.