

everychild.one voice.®

Being a PTSA advocate means leading your voice to issues that affect your child at home, at school and in the community. With the PTSA, you are able to better share your ideas with other parents, teachers, school administrators and community leaders to become part of the decision-making process. Your Voice Matters! Membership in Lafayette PTSA give you access to resources, tools, and help from other PTSA members to create a strong voice to effect change for your student.
