Robert Crawford, Principal

As we enter the start of this new week, students will be treated to a performance by the Lexington Children's Theater. We look forward to this presentation and future opportunities to enrich the school's curriculum.

This upcoming week two parent-focused meetings will be held at the school. On Monday, the school will host an informational meeting about Primary Talent Pool (PTP) as related to gifted and talented education. On Tuesday, the Maxwell PTA will provide a meeting to launch the upcoming fundraising opportunity that will occur over the next several weeks. We hope that you will be able to join us for these informational events!

This week also marks the completion of the equivalency of a month of school. We hope that your children have been sharing with you all the wonderful things they have been learning these past several weeks.

Lastly, Wednesday has been designated a high attendance day by the district. Attendance is an important contributing factor to a child's educational success.

Thank you for your partnership as we continue to strive to provide the best learning opportunities and outcomes for the students of Maxwell!
