

Cassidy School Council
Policy on the Primary School Program

The seven critical attributes shall be incorporated in Cassidy School's Primary Program through the implementation of diverse groupings. Flexible grouping and regrouping of children will allow for vertical as well as horizontal learning while maintaining continuous progress and meeting individual student needs. It is the Council's expectation that meaningful multi-age activities will take place in all single graded classrooms on a daily basis.