When the Council learns that the school needs to hire a principal, they will:

1. Meet with the superintendent, or designee, (who will replace the principal as chair of the Council) and review the Best Practices for Principal Selection document available on the Kentucky Association of School Councils website.
2. Select a trainer of their choice to deliver training in recruitment and interviewing techniques. The Council *Vice-Chair (or designee) will arrange for this training on a date agreed upon by the Council and call a special meeting of the Council for this purpose with "Principal Selection Training" as the agenda.
3. Distribute copies of this policy to all members before the scheduled training and send a copy to the trainer who will be providing the selection training.

*The Council may want to elect a Vice-Chairperson (if none exists) to act as a liaison and contact person with the Chair (superintendent) during this process.

The Council will:

1. Design and carry out processes to get stakeholder input on what traits will make the best leader for this school. Stakeholder input will involve but not be limited to faculty and staff, parents, and students (where appropriate).

These criteria will not discriminate based on race, ethnicity, gender, marriage or family status, religion, political affiliation, disability, or age.
 - c. Use the criteria they have developed to write standard interview questions that fit those criteria and which will be asked of all candidates in in-person interviews.
 - d. Decide on other methods to use to gather information about the candidates. The methods may include (but not be limited to) some or all of the following: applications and résumés, references, applicant portfolios, open forums, and written responses to hypothetical work-related challenges.
3. Call a special meeting of the Council and meet in closed session to:
 - a. Review all applications and written references and select applicants to interview.
