Guests Present: Ruby Sherrard, Josie Grant, Caleb Robinson-- student ambassadors; Audrey Long

The meeting was called to order at 5:05PM.

1. Approval of Agenda: Col. Coker made a motion to approve the agenda with a change that Literacy Committee would present before the Good New report. Ms. Schentrup seconded the meeting.

2. Approval of Minutes: Ms. Schentrup moved to approve the minutes from the last meeting. Mrs. George seconded the motion and the motion passed.

3. Literacy Committee Presentation: Ms. Tracy Parks presented about "Defender Dynamics" which is the writing initiative that will be rolled out to teachers in the upcoming months. She, along with other members of the literacy committee, are working to use a hybrid of best practices that are specifically designed for our students and teachers. They will be creating a toolbox of strategies and will be pairing these with professional development for teachers, resources and ongoing support to assist with the initiative.

4. Good News: Ms. Schentrup presented the Good News to the committee.

5. Public Comments: there were none.

6. Mini-Grant Secondary Social Studies: Mr. King discussed this mini-grant that the district has applied for that would support social studies teachers in understanding the new standards more clearly.

7. Field Trips: Ms. Marcum presented the upcoming extended field trips to the committee as well as the one day field trips that happened in October.

8. Budget & Staffing: Mr. King discussed with the committee, the 1.0 instructional paraeducator position that was posted that will be used to assist our social workers with those students who have attendance issues.

9. Student Learning: Mr. King discussed our "Data, Dinner, and Discussion" night that took place on November 7, 2019.

One of the student ambassadors suggested that we have a feedback survey with students to find out how they feel about how testing went, what they liked, what they didn't, what worked, what didn't, etc.

Approval of new courses for 20-21: A motion was made by Ms. Clay and seconded by Ms. Schentrup and was found favorable to approve the following courses-

- Art of the Fashion Industry
- PreAP Visual Art/AP Studio Lab

10. Supplemental Duties: the supplemental positions that were added since the previous meeting were presented to the committee.

11. Financial Reports: the section 6 and student activity account reports were presented to the committee by Mr. King.

12. Working Agenda for December: we would like for the wellness committee to attend.

A motion was made by Ms. Tracy and seconded by Ms. Schentrup to adjourn and was found favorable.
