GLENDOVER ELEMENTARY

SCHEDULING POLICY

Determination of the school schedule will be subject to the beginning and ending times of the school day and the school calendar as established by the Fayette County Board of Education. In addition, the Principal will develop a master schedule that:

- Provides students with quality teaching and learning time.
- Allows teachers shared time to collaborate and plan on a regular basis.
- Supports the Glendover Elementary Curriculum Policy.
- Supports the Glendover Elementary Comprehensive School Improvement Plan.
- Considers any special needs of individual and/or groups of students.
- Includes special area classes, lunch, and scheduled physical activity for students.

The principal may make changes to the master schedule to address Multi-Tiered Systems of Support or Response to Intervention, Special Education, or English Language Learner needs. In the event of a schedule change, every effort will be made to give teaching staff advance notice.
